Trips Recap 2014 - 2015 Season

I want to take this opportunity to share with you a rather short synopsis of each of the five trips that were offered this season. Before you look at the net gain or loss, be aware that we try to price our trips so that we break even. We are not here to make a profit. Actually, any comps that we receive as a result of having adequate numbers are rolled back into the trip to either lower the price per person or give each person an upgraded welcome party or dinner. Unfortunately, this year, our numbers were far from being adequate. With that said, we did as well as could be expected with what we had.

Copper Mountain Colorado December 10-14, 2014. Cost $270.00 plus lift tickets. Eight people attended. This trip was bundled with the Cornhuskers ski club due to low numbers. We stayed at the Mountain Plaza condos in Center Village at Copper Mountain. Net profit after expenses was $120.

Crested Butte Colorado Flatlands Ski Association (FSA) January 25th - February 1st, 2015. Cost $145 for 7 nights lodging, 5 day lift tickets and all FSA activities. 13 people attended. We stayed at the Grand Lodge at the base of Crested Butte. The accommodations were very nice and we had a good welcome party at the Avalanche Bar and Grill. Participation was low. Net loss was $143.28.

Mount Bachelor Oregon CMSC trip February 21-28, 2015. Cost $1450. This included 7 nights lodging at Sunriver Resort and 5 day lift tickets. Great CMSC activities throughout the week. Participation was low. 11 members attended. I felt this was due to the location, bussing to and from the mountain and 3.5 hour transfers from Portland Airport. Net profit was $136.

Mammoth Mountain California March 14-21, 2015. Cost $1,075. This included seven nights lodging and 6 day lift tickets. No transportation was included in the cost of the trip. 5 people attended. We stayed at Juniper Springs Resort. It was a very nice place to stay and would have been ski-in, ski-out had the snow conditions been better. As it was, the temperature was warm and the conditions were spring-like. We made the best of the week and also explored June Mountain while we were there. It is very difficult to get air from Omaha to this area for a reasonable price. Net profit $4.31.

Beaver Creek Colorado March 31-April 5, 2015. Cost of the trip was $430 plus lift tickets. 6 members attended. This trip included five nights stay at The Charter. The accommodations were nice though we had to use a shuttle due to the warm temperatures and no snow. Low participation. Net loss $2606.42. This was due to the inability to further decrease the number of condos below 3 without penalty.

The major problem we have had throughout this season was low participation. We were unable to offer low prices and discounted lift ticket prices due to the numbers being below the group level which is usually 20-24. When trips are planned, we initially plan for 20 members. Our pricing corresponds with this number and we try to get group rates for lift tickets. Most resorts need 20 people to give discounted lift ticket rates. With many of our members having four-packs, season passes or their own condos, the numbers that we have for trip planning purposes is decreased.

Solutions to these problems include:

- increasing the number of members in our club to increase member participation on trips
- encouraging younger members to join us for trips
- offering shorter trips
- putting more people together in condos which would decrease the price per person
- offering less variety and only going with other clubs or councils where they decide where we are going
- offering fewer trips
- Marketing the club which would include brochures at businesses, word of mouth, friends bringing friends, friends bringing strangers, being positive and encouraging others to go on trips

These are just a few items I'm throwing out there for you to ponder as you look at the future of our club. The Board wants to be able to gather your input and offer you great trips that you want to participate in. As a trip planner, I like to gather member's suggestions as to where they would like to go and try to plan trips accordingly. Often times we have no choice in where Flatlands Ski Association or CMSC schedules their trips, but we do have choices in early season and later season March and April trips. If anyone has any suggestions for places they would like to go send me an email at dragonsrock@cox.net.

I want to thank everyone who went on a trip this past season. Despite the low participation, we offered a variety of trips and we had fun on each and every one of them! This is your club and you do have input as to where we go and what activities we plan. One way to have a voice is to become involved, attend the social gatherings, attend the board meetings and go on a trip once in a while. Let your voice be heard. Make your club work for you!

Beaver Creek Trip March 31-April 5, 2015

Six members of the Omaha Ski Club braved the summer conditions for the last trip of the season. It was very warm when we arrived, the flowers were blooming and the snow was melting fast. We stayed at The Charter in two-bedroom style condos. The lodging was nice as were the indoor and outdoor hot tubs. The property is ski-in, ski-out during the high season with snow. This year was too warm and we shuttled to the lift. We did enjoy walking around, exploring the village area without our heavy coats.

Each morning we had a buffet breakfast included with the trip. Then we went to ski until it became too slushy. The conditions were good until around 1 PM. We had fun with what was available.

The first night, we went to dinner at the restaurant at The Charter. The food was good and the prices reasonable. A couple evenings, we fixed burgers and spaghetti for dinner. It was a family style trip!

I would like to welcome Dale Weinstein, a new member who joined us on this trip. He joined Ben, Janet, Mark, Phil and Teri for the drive out trip to Beaver Creek. Thank you all for making this a fun trip!
