Copper Mountain Colorado December 14-18, 2016

First trip of the season! Ten members of the Omaha Ski Club traveled to Copper Mountain for some great early season skiing. Mother Nature was kind to us and dumped several inches of powder for us to play in.

When we arrived in Dillon, it was snowing. The staff at the hotel let us have our room early. We unloaded our bags and went for breakfast in the hotel lobby. There was a large variety of both hot and cold items to choose from. We enjoyed a great view of the snow-covered mountains and the open waters of Lake Dillon while eating. We had great accommodations at the Best Western Ptarmigan Inn in Dillon. The hotel rooms were large with refrigerators and Wi-Fi. Parking was close and there were only a few stairs to walk up or down. There was a large indoor hot tub area that had a patio and sliding doors which could be opened for air. The view of the lake gave it a feel of being outdoors.

Teri and Phil went to ski on Wednesday. It was snowing hard and it took a run or two to get used to powder. It was fun to ski on soft snow. Later that evening, the group went to Ruby Tuesdays for dinner.

The next day, we were up early and ready to ski. Valerie took us to Green Acres, an area at Copper that I did not know existed. We were transported to the lift by snowmobile shuttles. We rode the Poma Lift and skied fresh groomed powder. Valerie did a great job. We skied most of the day and then went to Jack's to relax and listen to Lefty Lucy. It is always fun to see Lucy and Nick.

Thursday evening, we all met at China Szechuan in Frisco for our welcome party. We sang "Happy Birthday" to Brian and enjoyed wonderful Chinese cuisine.

Friday, we successfully made a run down Highpoint with Valerie. It was snowing again. We met up with an old friend and made a couple runs with Len. The rest of the day we played in the snow. We relaxed at Jacks for a while, went back to the hotel for some hot tub time, then walked across the parking lot to the Arapahoe Café for dinner.

Saturday morning, we woke to fresh powder. It was going to be a great day! Breakfast with a view then clean the snow off the car. The skies cleared a little bit, the wind picked up and the temperatures plunged during the day. The powder was thick and we had to take several stops to warm up. We joined the rest of our group at Jacks to see Lucy and Nick before we left. We stayed until the music stopped, then waited about 40 minutes for the bus to the parking lot. We left Copper and had to wait a very long time in bumper to bumper traffic. I-70 was closed at the Silverthorne exit and the patrol sent us across the Dam Road. It took over an hour to get back to the hotel. We ended the evening with dinner at the Arapahoe Café. It was the easiest choice.

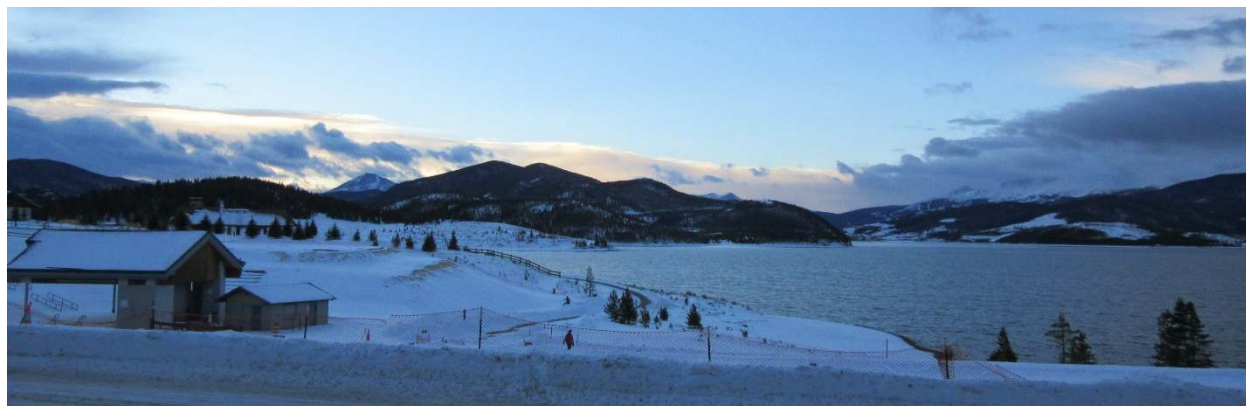

The first trip of the season is now in the record books. It was great to be in the mountains again. Copper had recorded 37 inches of fresh snow during the time that we were there. I hope it continues throughout the season. I look forward to our next trip to Steamboat in January. Have you signed up yet?

Happy New Year! I wish you love, peace, happiness and a whole bunch of fresh powder for 2017!!!
Let it snow!
