Board Member Biographies

Ben Novograd - Secretary

My name is Ben Novograd and I'm currently the newsletter editor, secretary and website administrator for the Omaha Ski Club. My duties include compiling and publishing the newsletter, producing board meeting minutes and records, maintaining the club's group email lists and maintaining the club website.

I'm originally from Connecticut and stayed here after retiring from the Air Force at Offutt AFB in October 1998. Career wise, my areas of expertise are weather and computers; I received a master's degree from SUNY Albany in atmospheric science, and then spent a lot of time doing weather-related computer programming. My primary outdoor interests are skiing in the winter and bike riding in the summer. I started skiing in high school in the winter of 1970-71, but took a break from skiing after joining the Air Force in 1978 when military assignments took me to places without ski areas. In 1990, I got assigned to a base near Colorado Springs – a great place to rekindle the skiing interests. In 1994, my next assignment put me at Offutt AFB near Bellevue. Several years later, I joined the club in December 1997 to go on group ski trips and joined the board in 2005. Since then, I've gone on lots of club trips and have been the trip captain on a few of them.

Besides skiing, I enjoy bike rides, hiking and kayaking in the summer.

Joe Reitman - Treasurer

My name is Joe Reitman and I'm currently the Treasurer for the Omaha Ski Club. My duties include preparing monthly financial reports, depositing, and issuing checks. I like this position because I enjoy working with numbers and I have business finance experience.

I joined the ski club four years ago to go on a trip to Steamboat Springs. I wasn't expecting much more than skiing so I was pleasantly surprised by all the additional activities offered during the Flatland Ski Association event. I especially liked the snowshoe racing, downhill racing, and of course the free beer! It was great to experience all that with nice people and to ski at a nice resort.

Originally I'm from Poughkeepsie, New York. I enlisted in the Navy when I was 19. During my twenty-one year military career I traveled extensively and lived abroad. My job rating was Electronics Technician. I rose up through the ranks to supervise teams who maintained and repaired satellite communications systems. After retirement in 2007, I started investing in real estate. That is how I came to Omaha. I own apartments in Sioux City and Omaha. I completed a 4-year degree at the University of Nebraska at Omaha in 2011. Currently I work at First Data as an applications developer. I enjoy programming computers as a hobby and profession.

Besides skiing, I enjoy SCUBA diving, biking, paddle boarding and DIY projects when I have the time. I have a cat named Mickey that demands attention when she is awake.
