Taos NM Trip February 18-23, 2020

Nine members of the Omaha Ski Club found their way to Taos for four days of skiing and five days of exploring our surroundings in this interesting town. The weather cooperated and we had dry roads on the way there. When we arrived, it was even dusty in town. The red rock and dust were everywhere.

The first day was very foggy. We were not able to see where we were on the mountain but we made the best of it. It was different skiing in the fog. We stopped at the historic Hondo Bar in the Snakedance Condos for a drink before boarding the carts pulled by a truck, back to the parking lot. That evening, we had dinner at the Gorge Bar and Grill located in the town square followed by the hot tub at the Taos Valley Lodge where we were staying. The following days, the skies were blue and temps were fairly warm. We had the welcome party at the Taos Mesa Brewing Co. Tap Room. The pizza was delicious, but the meat was very scarce. One evening, we went to Stella's, a very quaint Italian restaurant with movie stars photos on the walls. The food was excellent. It would have been interesting to see if the owners had met any of the famous people whose photos were posted.

Several of our members went up the Kachina lift to the top and skied down the moguls. Others enjoyed all the other areas to ski. We explored most of the runs. With the blue skies, the area was beautiful. It was fun skiing with friends and enjoying life. We stopped in at the Rathskeller Bar in the Hotel St Bernard, which was one of the original buildings at Taos.

One morning, we took a different road to the mountain. It was red dirt and just over one lane wide, with a drop off on the side. I loved it so much, I had to drive it the next day! The town of Taos had much to see. There were many different art works, an old cemetery, the metal figures and the buildings. We drove out to the Rio Grande bridge and walked across it. It was a very deep gorge with the water some 660+ feet below the bridge.

On the second to last day, Chris injured her calf muscle and received her first toboggan ride to the clinic. Unfortunately, she had to rest the remainder of the trip. Brian, Pat, Phil and El took the day to visit Angel Fire. El liked that mountain. A couple years ago, we skied there and there were only three runs open. It was very different this time. That evening, we found a great Chinese restaurant, Hunan, next-door to the hotel. Good food and quick service.

On Sunday, we finished loading the car for the ride home. It was a beautiful day, dry roads through eastern Colorado and Nebraska. It was a fun trip, except for the injury. I wish Chris a quick recovery. Thank you to all who went on the trip!

Copper Mountain Colorado March 1-5, 2020

Six members of the Omaha Ski Club joined with the twenty-three members of the Cornhusker Ski Club on a joint venture to Copper Mountain. We arrived Sunday and enjoyed powdery conditions as it was snowing during the day. We skied all afternoon, checked into the condos and went to relax in the outdoor hot tub. We stayed at the Mountain Plaza Condos at the Center Village base, a short walk to the American Eagle lift. Our condos were nice, two bedroom, two and a half baths. There was an indoor sauna and hot tub and also an outdoor hot tub. Each condo had one underground parking space. The kitchen and living room were spacious and the views of the mountain from seventh floor were nice. We even watched as two guys removed ice from the roof of the building next to us.

Sunday evening, we had Fred's two-alarm burgers for dinner. Fred fixed dinner and as he was broiling the burgers, some of the grease spilled in the oven, which set off the fire alarm. We aired the condo and called the front desk to have security turn off the alarm. The alarm was sounding loudly in the kitchen and master bedroom areas, but not in the adjoining bedroom. We had dinner at the small table in the bedroom! An hour later, Fred found security and unsecured switches to turn off the alarm, and had security silence the alarm. The burgers were great! Thank you, Fred, for an exciting dinner!

Monday, we met up with Jamie and Andie. The snow conditions were great even though it was overcast most of the day. We enjoyed the hot tub and got ready for the Welcome Party in the Ptarmigan A room at the Conference Center. We had pizza, soup, salad, garlic bread and Rice Krispy bars. It was great to visit with members of the Cornhusker Club as well as Herb S. and Scott and Denise Branum. Just like FSA all over again! Gerry, the Mountain Host, gave us some tips about the mountain and told us about the new Three Bears Lift that takes skiers up to Tucker Mountain. We use to have to hike up there to ski down.

The following day, we skied a couple runs with Gretchen then joined with the group of Ambassadors (Jamie, Simon, Len and 3 others) to go ski off Three Bears Lift and Union Peak. We had a great time in the sunshine and powder. After that workout, we met up with Brian and Pat and skied a few easier runs with them. It was a wonderful day! That evening, Jamie and Simon had the Omaha Ski Club and the Summit County division of OSC over for dinner. Chili, hot dogs, salad and snacks were on the menu. We saw our favorite poodle, Meier and enjoyed visiting with our Summit County friends: Len, Gail, Joe, Cindy, Andie, Jamie and Simon. We returned to the condo and prepped the breakfast casserole for morning.

Wednesday, Gretchen had a lesson. Phil and I took Fred to explore the mountain and some of the mogul runs that he hadn't skied yet. At the end of the day, after we finished Far East, we had to go up Storm King one more time. This led to the Hallelujah bowl and more moguls and the Cache Glades and more moguls. By the time we returned to the condo, we were tired and ready for the hot tub.

Fred was on the couch, sound asleep. Gretchen had a good day with her lesson and was anxious to show us what she had learned. That evening, we had spaghetti at our condo and retired early.

Thursday, we packed up and loaded the cars. Jamie met up with us and Gretchen showed us what she had learned. Phil and Fred went off to do more moguls off Three Bears Lift. The girls took it easy, practicing with Gretchen. We stopped at Solitude Station to rest and take photos. Hopefully, there will be a new building by next season. We skied until 1 PM and then left for home.

The drive home was uneventful and dry. Thank you all for making this a great trip! Special thank you to Jamie and Simon Lewis for hosting dinner and to the Cornhusker Ski Club for including us in the group!
