Trips Update December 2021

The good news: We are going to Telluride and they are getting dumped on! Hopefully the snow conditions will be great when we get there. The west has been having incredible amounts of snow. Places like California and Utah have had almost too much snow...is there such a thing?

The bad news:

Unfortunately, I am not able to get any more rooms for the Telluride trip. I have five people on the waiting list. The unfortunate part of this whole story is: I had to cancel two rooms (that was 8 spots) by October 1st so that the club would not lose money. At that time, I had sent an email and reminded anyone who wants to go, to sign up early! Those who did sign up early, have a spot on the trip. Those who waited until the last minute are not able to go because the trip is full. Please let this be a lesson on future trips. With the way things have been with Covid the past year and a half, more people are trying to get outdoors and vacation. This, along with more groups planning trips to destination resorts, make for less rooms available. FSA did have to move the dates of our trip earlier since there was a large group that took our week between last year and this year.

On that note, I want to announce that we will be going to WHITEFISH Montana next year! Save the dates of January 27 – February 3, 2023. This will be a week-long trip for us, with the FSA trip included! Save the dates and SIGN-UP EARLY! We will have some wonderful accommodations at The Lodge at Whitefish. More information on this next year.

The Utah Trip continues to fill. We have eleven people signed up so far. I do have seven spots left if you wish to join us on this adventure. We will stay at Crystal Inn and Suites and take the bus to Snowbird, Alta, Brighton or Solitude. We will also visit Deer Valley (IKON) or Park City/Canyons (EPIC) for a day or two. One evening, we will have a welcome party. Other days, we will explore the restaurants around the area. If you plan to fly out, the hotel needs 24 hour notice to pick you up. Some of us will have vehicles there, otherwise the hotel will shuttle us.

We have been having strange weather here in Nebraska for December. It is unknown when Mt. Crescent will open. We haven't had any snow other than a dusting and the temperatures are in the 40's. Climate change? Global warming? I will let the experts decide. For now, I would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas, Happy Holidays and a wonderful New Year! Be safe and enjoy your friends and family. They are the most precious gifts that you have!

Please join us for the Social Gathering and pre-trip information session for Telluride on Sunday, January 16th - 5pm at Copps Pizza & Sports Bar (7474 Towne Center Pkwy #101, Papillion, NE)

Summit County Trip December 8-12, 2021

Ben Novograd, Phil Bintz, Randy Malmgren, Andy Rabick, Billy Coghill, Scott Branum, Teri Hammon, Denice Branum, Jamie Lewis, Ellen & Pebbles Forster, Fred Hutson, Pat Connelly, Simon Lewis, Brian Moore. (Front) Debbie Williamson, Len Szmurlo and Gretchen Hutson.

What started as a full trip, with a waiting list, dwindled before we left. A few pre-trip injuries and illness prevented some from going. There was fear of no snow or very limited runs being open. It was an early season trip. As with any early season trip, there could be the possibility that we had limited opportunities for decent skiing. I was optimistic. There was snow predicted, with a possible storm while we were there. I knew that Copper would have at least a few runs open and others had told me that Keystone wasn't bad for the limited terrain open. We never found out as we all skied at Copper Mountain. They had received a few inches of snow on Tuesday before we arrived. Wednesday, Phil and I skied. The snow was great! Storm King was even open! The US Ski Team was training under the Super Bee. The Grand Prix was at the half pipe. Highpoint was open under the Flyer. We took several runs to check the conditions, then we went back to the Best Western Ptarmigan Lodge to check out the hot tub. It felt fabulous! The hotel was clean and comfortable. We had hot breakfasts each morning and bars or fruit to take with us. The rooms were nice, with great showers. We all had lake views of Lake Dillon and the mountains.

Thursday, we returned to Copper Mountain. The slopes were busy since there weren't many runs open. There was talk of Timberline opening soon, maybe by Saturday. We had received about 5 inches of fresh snow overnight with more expected. This was going to be a very busy weekend. Thursday evening, we were joined by Len, Jamie and Simon for a Welcome Party at the hotel lobby and breakfast area. We had pizza from Peppino's. Len brought a delicious dessert tray from Blue Moon Bakery. Jamie and Simon prepared beautiful green and fruit salads and helped with the pizza delivery. We had lots of food to eat. Afterwards, we took a group picture since it was impossible to get everyone together on the slopes.

Friday, we skied at Copper Mountain again. It was a bit busier, but they had opened Bittersweet and a couple other runs. It was snowing and another 6 inches had fallen overnight. The snow was great considering the amount of people on the slopes. We stopped in at Jack's Bar to say hi to Lucy and Nick. Brian was in the clinic. He had fallen earlier and injured his knee. Later we found out that the ligament was torn and he was probably done skiing for the year. Later that evening, several of us went to Pug Ryan's for dinner. The fish and chips were delicious.

Saturday, it was a record attendance day at Copper Mountain. The interstate was a parking lot of people waiting to get to the parking lot. We had left the hotel early and it still took us about 20 minutes to get to the parking lot from the exit point. The lift lines were just as bad. In all the years that I have been coming to Copper, I have never seen the lift line for the Flyer extend as far back to the Eagle. It was insane! Timberline lift opened with an additional area to ski. Thankfully, we had made several runs early and felt that we skied enough. It was off to the hot tub and a quiet dinner with friends.

Andy, Phil, Ben, Len and Brian

Sunday, we packed and headed for home. The roads were good. Overall, we had a good time skiing. The snow was great and it gave us a chance to get our ski legs and enjoy the company of good friends. I hope all of the sick and injured members recover quickly! I hope to see everyone soon.
