Trips Update

I hope everyone is having a great summer! It is a bit toasty outside, but we have had some nice social gatherings by the water. Now, let's think about snow! Yes, the white stuff and cold temperatures and skis and having fun on the slopes! We are going to Whitefish! We have 34 spots reserved and 21 signups so far. I will be dropping rooms by the end of September and the Tulsa club has already asked for anything that we drop. We will not be able to get them back. I know you are tired of me saying this, but sign up NOW! Don't ask me in December if we have rooms, the answer will be no. If you are planning on this trip, NOW is the time to sign up!

Mammoth Trip has 12 spots and 6 signups as of now. We have offered spots to the Cornhusker Ski Club, if there are members who wish to join us for the week. Again, if you plan to join us at Mammoth, sign up now!

We are working on a couple more trips for the season. More information soon!

New VP of Activities - Pebbles Forster

Let me introduce myself. I am your new VP of Activities. My name is Pebbles Forster. Ellen Forster introduced me to the Omaha Ski Club in 2018, then taught me how to ski.

On my first day of skiing, I spent more time on the ground than upright because, yes, I fell that many times. Ellen eventually decided it was time I go up the lift. I fell immediately getting off the lift. Once I got myself adjusted and psyched up enough to attempt to ski down hill, we were off. I watched other skiers – including little tykes who had barely learned to walk. Surely if they could do it, I could, too, right?

Off I go, listening to Ellen's instructions and trying to follow her gentle, graceful movements. But then, it came time to turn. No matter what I did, my skis wouldn't turn! It's like they had a mind of their own. With the run's side boundary quickly approaching, I had to do something! I tried snowplowing, and I only went faster! My only alternative was to fall. So, that's what I did.

Every pass from side to side of the run, the same thing. The skis wouldn't turn. They wouldn't slow down. I ended up on the ground. Whose idea is it to attach waxed boards to a person's feet and attempt controlled sliding down a hill of icy snow anyways?!

I finally got down that hill. It only took an hour. I know what you're thinking. It must have been a big hill, right? Ummmm, not so much. It was Mt. Crescent in Iowa in January of 2019.

Since then, I've taken several lessons. I've truly enjoyed learning to stay upright on my skis and the many trips we've taken these last few years. Thank you to everyone who has cheered me one and/or taken the time to share their tips and insights. I continually strive to improve my technique with every ski trip. Gliding those blue cruisers with Ellen has become one of my favorite activities.

Enough about me learning to ski. You're probably wondering what experience I bring to the Omaha Ski Club board. Over the years I've worked in various office environments and planned logistics for many social events and conferences.

I served on the boards of Omaha Women's Connection (a local chapter of Stonecroft Ministries) and Wordsowers Christian Writers Group. While with Wordsowers, I designed graphics, scheduled speakers, organized content, and advertised their annual writers' conferences, resulting in attendance growth. Each year we broke previous attendance records, growing from 30 local attendees to 500 attendees from over 15 states within 3 years.

As a business owner, I managed a team of remote assistants (who worked from their location instead of commuting to my office) and worked with authors at all stages of getting their books published. I developed and managed social media platforms, from press releases to website development, media content creation, and audience engagement.

Ellen and I enjoy an active life, which includes cycling, golfing, kayaking, hiking, bowling, skiing and going to the gym. I love building gardens, taking pictures, walking our puppies, gathering people, and living life to its fullest with Ellen.
