Trips Update June 2022

It has been a busy month. The FSA meeting in June went well, at least I survived my first meeting as FSA President. There were several things needing attention with the Whitefish trip and unfortunately, I have not been able to get any answers on additional trips for next season. Hopefully soon.

Whitefish Trip has 20 sign-ups as of today. I cannot stress enough, sign-up early! ONLY 14 spots left. The other question several have asked was regarding group airfare. If you are planning on flying, please book your flight now. The prices are only going to increase and you will get a better individual price than if we book group. I booked a flight for December's site visit and it was $526. This is cheaper than gas prices, but the airfare prices are steadily increasing. We will work out the logistics with the Lodge, but you will have transfers to and from the airport in Kalispell MT. Just watch prices and grab what you can.

Mammoth Trip has 7 sign-ups with only 5 spots left. Again, sign-up if you are planning on this trip. The pricing is still a few dollars +/- and CMSC is working out details. This is why the flyer still says "Preliminary". When I get the pricing set-in-stone, I will remove this. The dates are good and if you plan to fly, book that flight. We will worry about airport transfers later.

If you have not turned in your membership application and dues, now is the time!
Membership is required for trips.

I hope everyone has a safe and happy 4th of July!

Teri Hammon
