Crested Butte, Colorado – December 11 to 15, 2013

Four Omaha Ski Club members participated in the Crested Butte ski trip. This trip was run by the Cornhusker Ski Club primarily as a bus trip. Three of us (Ben, Bill and Steve) drove out to the bus company in Lincoln late Wednesday afternoon on the 11th and boarded the bus for the ride to Crested Butte. The bus left Lincoln at around 5:30 p.m. and arrived at the Plaza condos in Mt Crested Butte an hour early, at 6 a.m. the next morning. We were fortunate – the condos were ready for us and we were all able to check in early. Mark drove up from Colorado Springs Thursday morning, the 12th, and met us at the condos at about 8 a.m. We all got our lift tickets and started the first of what would be 3 great skiing days.

Thursday was a bluebird day – bright blue skies, totally clear and dry, with light winds. We started out skiing groomed intermediate runs, and then tried out a bit more challenging terrain as the day progressed. At the end of the skiing day, we tried out the hot tub (the condos had two hot tubs – indoor and outdoor – we used the indoor tub since the outdoor one was too crowded). Afterwards, we attended the trip's welcome party in the downstairs conference room, and used up our share of the pizza, beer and wine.

also few and far between since it was still early season. This was also the first day of the 2013-2014 ski season that Uley's ice bar and cabin café was open; we stopped by and had some liquid refreshments.

On Friday morning, the 13th, we got on the slopes shortly after the slopes opened. The weather was a bit cooler but the skies remained mostly sunny. We were able to ski on more terrain that had been opened in advance of the upcoming weekend. The snow conditions continued to be excellent – we encountered very few rocks or icy patches. Lift lines were

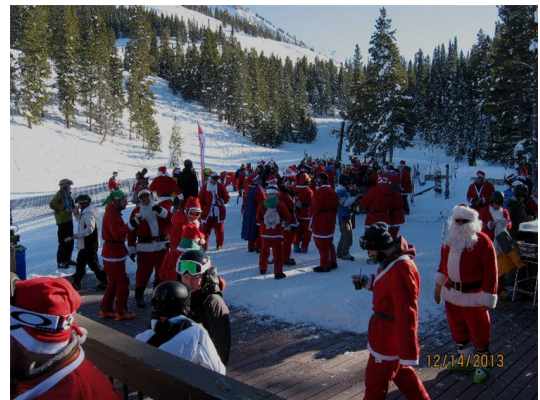

Later on Friday, we continued exploring parts of the mountain we hadn't skied on yet. Skies became a bit cloudy but snow conditions continued to be excellent. That evening, some of us had the fish and chips special for dinner at the local Avalanche bar and grill; most of the other skiers took the shuttle bus to downtown Crested Butte to check out the town.

Saturday morning, the 14th, started out clear, cool and breezy, and stayed that way throughout the day. We continued skiing a wide variety of terrain, from smooth groomed easy slopes to a few black diamond bump runs, along with more newly-opened runs. Since it was the weekend, considerably more people were on the slopes. The additional skier traffic began to cause some icy spots on the more popular cruising runs. After lunch, we stopped by Uley's cabin once more to watch a crowd of skiers in Santa costumes, who were preparing to set a Guinness record for the number of Santas skiing at once.

At the end of Saturday afternoon, we got back to our condo, changed clothes, and three of us (Ben, Bill and Steve) got on the bus for the ride back to Lincoln. Mark stayed at Crested Butte overnight and drove back to Colorado Springs the next day. The rest of us arrived at Lincoln at about 7:30 a.m. on Sunday morning, the 15th, unloaded the bus and drove the rest of the way to Omaha.
